

Elder Law Journal Student Note 2018-2019 Deadlines

Due Date	Time Due	Required
Friday, September 7	5PM	Note topic with summary & 10-15 sources listed due to Topics Editor.
Wednesday, September 12	5PM	Topics Editor will send you an email with any suggestions.
Friday, September 14	5PM	If there is a problem, the Topics Editor will meet with you by this date to discuss alternatives.
Friday, September 28	5PM	5 page outline with headings, summaries, & some endnotes due. Use the outline as a beginning step to writing your Note. It should indicate your intentions for the Note & list some sources that may be used.
Friday, October 6	5PM	Outlines returned from Notes Editor with comments.
Friday, October 12	5PM	Rough Draft: 10 pages text (double spaced) & 10 pages endnotes (triple spaced). 1.5 inch margins and Times New Roman 12 point font.
Friday, November 2	5PM	Rough Draft returned from Notes Editor.
Friday, November 16	5PM	Rough Draft: 20 pages text (double spaced) & 20 pages endnotes (triple spaced). 1.5 inch margins and Times New Roman 12 point font. Ensure you provide a mailing address so Notes Editor can mail your Note back to you during Winter Break.
Wednesday, January 2	5PM	Notes Editor mails draft back to you with comments.
Monday, January 21	5PM	Optional Draft: Optional turn-in of an updated draft of your Note to be reviewed by a different Notes Editor.
Friday, February 14	5PM	Rough Draft: 30 pages text (double spaced) and 30 pages endnotes (triple spaced). 1.5 inch margins and Times New Roman 12 point font.
Wednesday, February 27	5PM	Rough Draft returned from Notes Editor.
Friday, March 15	5PM	FINAL DRAFT DUE